

A menu card for St. Patrick's Day. The background is dark green with a gold border and scattered light green shamrocks. The text is centered in a white box.

Slow Roasted Corned Beef &
Cabbage with Braised Cabbage
& Boiled Potatoes

MONDAY

hello
SPRING

Pasta Primavera

Fresh Spring Vegetables & House Pesto tossed with Penne Pasta

March Special Natl Nutrition Month

MEZE PLATE

Hummus, Moroccan Spiced Chicken, Crumbled Feta, Kalamata Olives,
Cucumbers, Roasted Tomatoes, EVOO Drizzle

Meze is a style of eating that's popular in the eastern Mediterranean, North Africa, the Balkans, Western Asia, and the Middle East. This includes countries such as Greece, Turkey, Egypt, Bulgaria, Cyprus, Lebanon, Iran, Dubai, Armenia and so many more.

In these regions, meze is a mixture of small plates often filled with bite-sized foods, dips like hummus and baba ghanoush, flatbreads, salads, and finger foods such as stuffed olives, tiny cured fish, hard cheeses, meatballs etc.